

"What i want is"

enough trust

to have what i want

to sit at home
with him no worries

to txt him every so often

when i get home
and until he arrives

when i am home
i am watching movies

watching movies with the sound until my phone goes off

hi my love im on my way watching the movie with nothing to say

trust me trust you
